POLITICAL, AGRICULTURAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM. INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 19.

C. D. SULLIVAN & CO. wellers, Watch & Clock Makers, No. 30, Fourth St., St. Louis, Mo. A large and well selected assortment of Iclocks, watches, jewelry, silver spoons, &c., stantly on hand for sale low. roured. Engraving nearly executed, and altor-ers premptly attended to.

The highest prices paid for old Gold and

SHACKELFORD, FINNEY & CO. WHOLESALE GROCERS, COMMISSION & FORWARDING

MERCHANTS, O. 132 SECOND STREET ST. LOUIS MISSOURI.

BEN F. CRANE & CO., C. DEALERS IN Watches Clocks, Jewelry Solid Silver and Plated Ware, FINE TABLE AND POCKET CUTLERY, opd rellows' HALL, ST. LOUIS, MO.

JAS. G. WILLIAMS. MERCHANT TAILOR. GLASGOW; MO.

GLASGOW; MO.

Has now on hand, second door above to Post Office, a superior lot of Cloths,

Casimers,

Vestings,

Shirts.

Hats,

Cravats, &c.,

Which will be sold on favorable ferms.

Which will be sold on favorable terms,

April 8, 1857-17. LUMBER, SHINGLES, LATHS. THE undersigned is again in the market with a part of the following articles: 50,000 feet rough clear Pine lumber, all thickness; 00 ft (2) Poplar (4)

May 7, 1857.

SELLANG OUT AT COST!

$7,000 WORTH READY MADE SLOTHING, FOR SALE AT C COST. O COST. S COST. T.

New is a chance to get rid of you. Currency. No Humbug, but a Positive The undersigned will retail bis and will take all the notes of solvent Banks, SUSPENDED OR NOT, or will trholesale for approved paper at Six Months.

Stock of Clothing Prime Eastern Cost for Cash.

LIME! LIME!! UST received direct from Alten, 69 Bbls rder, and not slacked for THEO. BARTHOLOW. October 8, 1857.

Farming Tools. F NGLISH and American Scythes and Sickles; Grain Cradles and Grain Speads;

Manure and Hay Forks; Hoes and rakes; Spades and Shovels; SMITH, BOON & CO.

FALLESNTEIN, & GAUS,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN BOOTS & SHOES, Main street No. 18, upstairs, Sr. Louis Missount WM. t. HVNE

HANENHAMP & HYNES, WHOLESALE GROCERS Commission and Forwarding MERCHANTS.

No. 93 Second street, between Locust and Vin (East side,) St. Louis, Mo. Particular attention said to sales of Hemp bacco, Grain, Bacon and Lard. [deco

A.STROUSE. S. STROUSE, M. J. FRIEDSAM STROUSE, FRIEDSAM & CO., DEALERS IN-DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS

SHOES, HATS, AND MERCHANDISE GENERALLY, WATER STREET, GLASGOW, MO

BURCKHARTT & BIBB. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. HUNTSVILLE, MO.

WILL practice in the counties of Randolph, Howard, Boone, Mossoe, Macon, Chariton, Lan, Gruady, Livingston, Sullivan, Putnam, and Mescer. All business, (including the sale of lands, the collection of delts and the paying of taxes) entrusted to them will receive prompt at-Office at door below the Austin House

Main street. AOSOT

GLASGOW FEMALE SEMINARY The next session of this Invitation, will commence on WEDNESDAY, FER'Y 10, 1858.

Terms:-For session of twenty weeks.

PAINTER. PAPER HANGER AND GLAZIER, S again permanently located in this place, pre-pared give prompt attention to all orders in his line, warranting his work to be satisfactory, and his prices to be in accordance with the times. Glasgow, Jan. 7, 1858—3m

HOUSE, SIGN AND ORNAMENTAL

SMITH' HOTEL, Glasgow. Mo.

The undersigned has opened a large and commodious Hotel between Second and Inird, and Market and Howard streets, in this city. His house is new, and fitted up in the very best style, and has ample facilities for a first class Hotel. He has spared no pains in making his rooms elegant and comfortable. His table will at all times be furnished in a manner togratity the utmost reasonable wishes of his guests.

Randoph House, Main Street, west side of the Public Square,

HUNTSVILLE, Mo.

Large and Small Stick Candy

Sugar Plums, Almond Comfits, Rock Candy, Kisses and Lozenges. Also, to his assortment of Fancy Kiss Pape the country trade, and their superior quality is well attested by the large and increasing sales, and their superior quality is well attested by the large and increasing sales, and their superior quality is the large and increasing sales, and their superior quality is well attested by the national affections and bind them as A-miss or the Lorentz attention of the national affections and bind them as A-miss or the national affections are not affections.

No. 160 SECOND STREET.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI,

Brunswick. Mo. PARTICULARuttention paid to consigned March 1, 185

OUINBY & LONG. ATTORNEYS AT LAW

GENERAL LAND AGENT Linneus, Mo., May 21, 1857-1y

INO. TILLMAN CEO. 2025. TILLMAN & PHIPB. DEALERS IN Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Groceies, HATS, CAPS AND BONNETS

LERY, QUEENSWARE, &c. Glasgow, M. Entrance to Dry Goods Departmet, on First street—Grocery Department on Waterreet in cloth, $1.25, or, in two volumes, paper with passage from one to the other.

June 11, 1857.

GOODS

general assortment of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOOD GRO- American:

CERIES, BOOTS, SHOES, HATSIND CAPS, BONNETS, HARDWAR, QUEENSWAWE, CUTLERF In short, a general assortment, embracie every article the wants of the community regire, or

A call from our friends, and the p public generally, is respectfully solicite, and no efforts shall be spared on our part to suply their demands, with good articles, at living pairs. rate in Cash or Goods.
Entrance to Dry Goods Depriment on

First street-Grocery Department on Mer street with passage from one to the other.

TILLMAN & HIPPS.

50,000 LBS WOOL WANED. WE will purchase at fainciers, all the good wool of this year's clip which may offer. Glasgow, July 2, 1857.

PRO BONO PUBLICO. in this place, beg respectfully to accure that they are now receiving part of their NEW STOCK OF GOOS.

and their Wm. Wayland is off to pehase in Largest and Most Spleited Asof Goods ever brought to Roancks which they Very Smallest Remunerang Profits.

They will however, reserve to the elves the privilege of closing accounts when the consider a person doubtful. A call and examines is proced-

The Glasgow Times. At the Inauguration of the Statue at Wash-

where editorial notice of advertisements

WACO. Texas, Jan'y 20, 1858. DEAR GREEN:-Enclosed you will find

Respectfully, H. W. We shall be pleased to hear from our old friend, at all times, and at length.

Orders solicited and prompily attended to Marriage," etc., etc. The lamented author October 12, 1855. of the charming story that gives its title to Commission and Forwarding Merchan this attractive volume has left hehind her many lasting and beautiful souvenirs of her played in the writings of the late Mrs. Hentz-of the ease, correctness, and gracefulness of her style-of the purity or strengh of her moral principles-or of the applicability of her lessons and examples to the prudent regulation of the affairs of every day life. Like her works, those high opinions of the critics have become WILL practice in all the Courts of Liannel house-hold words among American readers. W adjacent counties. Particular attends given to accuring and collecting Claims, bring and selling Land, paying Taxes, and investiging Land Titles in all the counties in Northern discalculated to elevate and enlighten the minds of those who may not yet have had the pleasure to peruse them. It is due also to the worthy publisher, who keeps these works before the people, that he should be remunerated for his labor and enterprise. BOOTS, SHOES, HARDWARE, UT. Exclusive of the "Lost Daughter," this valume contains no less than nine of the authoress' most delightful stories. Price,

A Specimen.

The editor of the Lagrange Bulletin-a New Dry Goods, Groceries lard- paper which is fone of calling all who are not Depocrats "Black Republicans" and THE subscribers respectfully announce their friends and the public generally, it they have opened a new store, on First and Water streats, above Market, in which will be und a State. Fe is thus sketched by the Lagrange

The tlitor of the Bulletin is a Yankee Aboliticist schoolmaster, from Newburyport, Mass., and is strongly suspected hereabots that he was sent out to Kansas as a "dissionary," by the New England Emigrat Aid Society, but concluding that up" at lagrange, and has been hired by a say. We are in the market for even descrip-ion of PRODUCE, at the higher market few prossed Democrats to edit the Bullefin and enounce all good and conservative men wh were born and educated in the South, a Black Republicans and Abolition-

THE SUBSCRIBERS, thankful file libera the rept. I never make a practice of doa pretty good horn, and having swallowed laced the glass with evident salis. faction, le turned to the man who had lent

Address by Governor Wise,

GLASGOW, MO., THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1858.

and Counsellors; her sister States their lars of which are as follows: the grandest, proudest, purest of all earthly that place. gathering around Vergraia's Monument near, of Longuetil. Yesterday, the 16th ginians my gratitude and affection. TO WASHINGTON.

of America. And that country is the best type of its Father.

Vinginia:
"Parent of valor, cast away the fear!-

What a theme! What a scence for men and angels! May our God, in whose bosom literary triumphs. But, among them all, he rests, who guarded him in our country's PARTICULAR attention paid to the sale! there is not one, perhaps, more worthy of Tobacco, Hemp, Wheat, &c., and to the reciving and forwarding of Produce and Merchadisegenerally.

The Lost Daughter." We are not called tinue to hover over the land he saved, and ANDREW L. KERR.

COMMISSON & FORWARDING

MERCHANT,

Said in praise of the dramatic powers uis and sunshine, until earthly monuments shall innecence or guilt; I will give you some e tinue to hover over the land ne saved, and placed in custody, whither he was followed by Malo, who was much excited, crying by the Legislature of this State a sword of honhung upon the enves a minute of droppe over the land ne saved, and placed in custody, whither he was followed by Malo, who was much excited, crying by or—a beautiful token of approval, which, I where? Echo answers, in the swill-bar and sunshine, until earthly monuments shall improcence or guilt; I will give you some emoulder into dust, and humanity shall triumph over the probation of time, or time .He was not going to make himself sick to itself shall be no more.

Many are here, but one is absent. The artist-Chawronn-has been called away. going an examination before J. C. Coursol, He worked out of the clay: - Alas, his own Esq., police magistrate on a charge of felform has gone back to it; -and he modeled Revolution," the HENRY, and "Independ-been summoned to give their evidence. ence." the Jerrenson, and he cast equestrian statue, and mounted the Washington derly, we bid her welcome, but not to mourn No! fame has already sounded-

"Crawford, thou art fallen, And some limbs of sculpture fell with the! But from the ranks of Virginia's chivalry A glory has burst forth, and matchless powers Shall make the elemal grace of sculpture ours: Th' eternal grace; alas! the date assign'd
To works call'e deathless, of creative mind,
Is but a speck upon the sea of days.
And frail man's immortality of praise;

A moment to the eternity of time That is, and was, and shall be the sublime, But my part is only to welcome you introduce our chosen Bards and Orator who will sing and say this day's story in it was bt best to go to Kansas, he held stronger, sweeter strains than I can sing or Piccons. - A correspondent of the Lynch burg Virginian, writing from Hat Creek Campbell county, says: "Probably 100,000 pigeons have been killed in this pigeon war. The number of feather beds the thrifty housewives have put up, and are putting up had sput hundreds of dollars at a certain from the most excellent feathers from these grogger, being one day faint and feeble, birds, can hardly be told. They come into and out of change, asked the landlord to their camp by thousands at night, and leave trust his for a glass of liquor. 'No, was with the morning light, and go out in armies into the surrounding country for acorns. ing suchthings. The poor fellow turned to Their numbers are not diminishing—they a gentlesan who was sitting by, whom he had known in better days, saying, "Sir, will had known in better days, saying, "Sir, will you lend me sixpence?" Certainly, was the reply. The landlord with alacrity placed dred men and boys are semetimes found in Pork and two-thirds of the Wheat and oththe decatter and glass before him. He took degrades as I am, always to pay borrowed "A lie! I never told a fine in my life!".

Draw the stouts"

A FINANCIAL DOSE A Note for $5600 Va., and his Speeches There. Swallowed by a Physician. - A case which inst., this note became due, and Dr. Sabour-police were called in, and Dr. Sabourin metic;" to which Dr. Sabourin replied, please Mr. Malo." Dr. Sabourin has been under arrest ever since, and is now underony. All the endorsers of the note have

It was finished-it was enough-and he this State, lived a stalwort blacksmith, fond original, "the hero and the suge" himself, fond of his blooming daughter, whose many in a land of spirits, where images are graces and charms had ensuared the affecthe heavens." His widow is here, she sees cooing, "engaged" themselves, and nothing plante.) husband's masterpiece link his name peren- rent" preventing their union. To obtain dilated upon the fact of their lone friendremainder of his rhetorical flourish, blushed, stammered and finally wound up withfrom its parent bed, to my own." The father keenly relished the discomfiture of the suiter, and, after removing his pipe and ite State Register.

> WHEAT BRINGS SO LITTLE .- A COFFESondent at Yates City, a new town of Knox county, Ill., says:

"Wheat brings so little that farmers pre fer, as a general thing, being sued to selling at what-in view of the prices paid for help last harvest-they consider ruinous prices. Pork, however, has for the last two weeks moved forward with considerable activity, and has given relief which is materially felt in all quarters. There is ly for what they contended for in 1856: in the limits of this pigeon camp. There panic prices, to pay off all our indebtedness. Good farms, too, can be obtained with cash, is great sport; the best oyster suppers are in whole or in part, at better terms than ple. We all stand exactly where we stand sometimes served up on this pigeon ground." they may again be possibly, in many years, in 1856 .- [N. Y. Express. him the sixpence, and said, 'Here, sir, is the sixpence, and said, 'Here, sir, is the sixpence I owe you. I make it a point ever told, and I'll give you s glass of stout." frequent in this county, but in most cases

Lieut. Gen. Scott was received with dis-COUNTRYMEN AND FELLOW-CITIZENS: hes excited considerable talk in this city, tinguished honors by the Legislature of Virgof patent leather boots out of a piece of Single copies of The Times, put up in Countrymen and Fellow-Citizens:

wappers, can always be hadat the office at five Virginia has called the Nation, its Elders took place yesterday afternoon, the particular during his recent visit to Richmond.

The Lightenant Governor presiding in the The Lieutenant Governor presiding in the Yearly advertisers are restricted to their and Counsellors: her sister States their lars of which are as follows:

On the 13th of November last, Pierre Senate, spoke to him "ably and eloquently," Dobbs was one of this kind; he was as big charged at regular rates.

On the 13th of November last, Pierre Senate, spoke to him "ably and eloquently," Dobbs was one of this kind; he was as big charged at regular rates.

When he

me to the Enal resting place to which, in Letter From Texas. the grandest, proudest, purest of all eartify

This note was indersed by four parties, the course of nature, I am residly tender.

This note was indersed by four parties, the course of nature, I am residly tender.

With a Virginian heart I tender to allovirgher to the learning that the life is the course of nature.

The report of the South says: The situation of his house is one of the most pleasant and healthy in this city.

There is a good livery stable close at hand, where stock will be well attended to. The public are respectfully invited to give him a call.

WM. N. SMITH.

Draw Green:—Enclosed you will find to Washington.

Nagic name! If none other under Heading the deliveous of this speech there was not one who heard it whose heart was not touched, and tears moistened many an ecocktail in three days, and they were three thing on account, and give a renewal note eye. Cold indeed must the heart be that As to this country, I must confess (muchs clasp us hand in hand, and bind us heart to thing on account, and give a renewal note eye. Cold indeed must the heart be that latifudes and most a longitude out of their gainst my will) that I have been much discourse, in the kindred heirship of one Pappointed in my former opinion of Takes.

I suppose there never was a country so I suppose the never the balance. Mr. Malo then took the would not be moved at seeing that noble of the course, and in fifteen minutes made they country so I suppose the never the balance. Mr. Malo then took the would not be moved at seeing that noble of the course, and in fifteen minutes and most a longitude out of the course, and in fifteen minutes and most a longitude out of the course, and in fifteen minutes and they could not be moved at seeing that noble of the course, and in fifteen minutes and they could not be moved at seeing that noble of the course, and in fifteen minutes and they could not be moved at seeing that noble of the course, and in fifteen minutes patronage.

march 20, 1856.

S. H. BAILEY.

sontains a population of about two thousand, has a beautiful location on the Brazos

Wholesale Confectioner.

No. 54, Second Street, M. Louis, Mo.

WOULD respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Wholesale Street, M. Louis, Mo.

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Wholesale Street, M. Louis, Mo.

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respectfully call your affention temoment (if desirable to you) give you a

Would respect to the captod of Would respect to the tempton of the same floor as Mr.

Mr. Malo then gave the alarm. Mr. Bed well a lawyer who has an office in the same floor as Mr.

Malo, in his affidavit, states that while sit ting it there is the harmony of peace and the well a lawyer who has an office in ness greatness and majesty in that country larm coming from the office of Mr. Malo .- his Country;" but instead of being a mere darted into the room, shouting, "leapfrog, we call "Our Country!"—the United States Mr. Bedwell then opened his door, and saw spectator of that scene as I had expected— by thunder!" and stradding his legs he Malo standing between the two doors, loud- a mere looker-on-I am met by the assem- bounded one after another of the good peo-We will, then, this day gather together my note. He has eaten my note for five and have been honored by them with a corthousand six hundred dollars. He has it in diality and kindness which I could not have apron of his grant mother. There was a THE LOST DAUGHTER; AND OTHER STO- the national affections and bind them as A-Mr. Bedwell then entered Malo's office, ly interest in those of her sons who have Billy was taken to the great he and there saw a stout man (Dr. Sabourin) endeavored well in the cause of the Comwho was then unknown to him, who up monwealth, and it has been my fortune to be pounded till they broke up kinding was peared to be chewing something in his benefitted by that paternal feeling on more enough to last all winter. When the rot mouth, and making violent efforts to swal- than one occasion. I have had conferred commenced, I ran up stars, kn low, in which he succeeded, This man upon me high honors, the recollection of poodle dog endwise dashed into Sally Do said a few words in French, to the effect that he did not owe Malo anything. The alluded to in terms too complimentary for observation and saw Billy licked. I jump placed in custody, whither he was followed my acceptance, I had conterred upon me by out of the window apon a she sword, and happened to be the only one grave, that was the worst vegetable within reach when I left Washington.

> which would set forth the approbation of tops, fish-bones, potato-parings, apple-sking the Representatives of a State that I am and grease as I went. My old man thrash also conferred another honor upon me, by man sued my old man for spoiling his swill. Honomante Conditions, -- Many years passing highly emplimentary resolutions, The hogs were taken sick, and they had to on the war-horse and laid down his chiscl. ago, in what is now a flourishing city in and now, forty-four years after the first honor which was bestowed upon me by the hair oil since. was called from his work to meet the great of his pipe and of his joke. He was also Legislature of Virginia, I am here in your moulded not in clay, and monuments are tions of a susceptibly young printer. The ty welcome, which make me feel that this ent thus describes the domain of the Duke not "built with hands" and are "eternal in couple, after a season of mutual billing and honor is the proudest of them all. (Ap- of Devonshire:

WEIGHT OF THE CABINET. - A corresnondent of the Boston Journal says:

blowing a cloud, replied, ", Well, young man, of weight," as I noticed to-day on a regis. mushrooms. But what shall be said of the I don't know as I've any objections, provided you will marry the gal first."-[Gran- Smithsonian Institution. Howell Cobb is riety of tropical plants? It is one of the set down at 2171 pounds; Governor Brown wonders of the world. It covers an and the at 177; Secretary Toucey at 160; Secretary ground, is 100 feet high, of oval shape; and Thompson at 147, and Governor Floyd at cost $500,000. It is heated by steam and 129. I should judge that General Cass will hot water pipes, which is all are six miles weigh nearly 200 pounds, although he is not in length. The apparatus consumes six as fleshy as he was a few years since. He hundred tons of coal in a year. is very active for one of his age, and walks banana trees twenty feet high. to the Department of State almost every ters of fruit, sugar-oane, coff-morning without en overcoat.

more conservative men now contend exact-

"Justice and Equality for the Pres States, as well as for the Slave States-the right of self-government-the will of majorities popular principles and popular sovereign

BILLY Dogns .- Some folks are born with the devil in 'em, and you can't drive it out, either; you might as well try to make a pair corned-beef, or crowd a sode fountain through the touch-hole of a cannon. Billy bicharged at regular rates.

Dobbs was one of this kind; he was as big people and all the children of this confedures people and the specific people people and the specific people people and the specific people people and the specifi cets per square will be charged for obituary neces—to be paid in advance.

The charge for marriage notices is left to the bridegroom, and will be acknowledged in the pper.

The charge for marriage notices is left to the bridegroom, and will be acknowledged in the pper.

The charge for marriage notices is left to the memory of that pper.

The charge for marriage notices is left to the memory of that present the same of this day will fill me with son whose wisdom, valor and virtue won physician, of Longuetil, and ex-mayor of grateful memories, and I will bear them with would tell the tsuth. He told me confidentially that when he was taking a trip upon the canal, for his health, a storm came up one night, and in the morning they found the tow-line had shrunk so that it had drawn both horses on board the boat. It proved

THE public are respectfully informed inserpresented. I hope to become better that I have taken possession of the above thouse, with increased facilities for their accome satisfied after a-while. The winter thus sections are subdued and vanquished; for, transaction; while so engaged, Dr. Sabour-all." House, with increased facilities for their accomisatisfied after a-while. The winter thus modation. Several very desirable additions have far, has been the finest I have ever expense made to the Hotel, and I am now fully present and in quietly walked up to the table and seized in quietly walked up to the table and seized hold of the note, tore it into small pieces, and in quietly walked up to the table and seized hold of the note, tore it into small pieces, and in a laying at her feet the credit of them since. It is sections are subdued and vanquished; for, in quietly walked up to the table and seized hold of the note, tore it into small pieces, parently and in quietly walked up to the table and seized hold of the note, tore it into small pieces, placed it in his mouth and swallowed it.—

JAMES FLORE.

> expected. Virginia has always taken a live- kinder "laying on of hands" just then, and monwealth, and it has been my fortune to be pounded till they broke up kindling woo I ever swallowed. I shook the coffee At a subsequent period, Virginia did me grounds and egg shells out of my hair, and proud to own as my dear old Mother. They ed me for spelling my clothes, and Billy's old be killed to be cured. I have'nt used any > midst, and am received with your kind A ConfoRTABLE ESTABLISHEETST .- A cheers and by the expressions of your hear- correspondent of the New York Independ-

"The domain of the Duke of Devonshire through her tears of the joy and grief a but the consent of the young lady's "pa- als of regard, I may say without arrogance The park immediately surrounding the pal-When I reflect upon all these testimoni- would cover one of our largest counties .that my life has not been entirely in vain. ace is cleven miles in circumference, and nially, as bronze and marble last, to all the this, an interview was arranged, and Typo From my surflest youth I was fired with an contains 3,000 acres. The principal garardent desire to prove myself worthy of this den for vegetables, fruits, green-houses, &c., vince the old gentleman, who sat enjoying noble Commonwealth, and now, to receive is twenty-five acres. There are thirty his favorite pipe, in perfect content. Typo such generous applause, affords me the assurance that my wish was not altogether in feet long. We went into three or four conship, their mutual attachment, their hopes surance that my wish was not antigented in the topics, and, taking in behalf of my duntry have not been what ers contain nothing but melons and eucumthe daughter by the hand, said: "I now, they should have been, I beg to offer the bers. One peach tree on the glass wall sir, ask your permission to transplant this homage of a grateful and thankful heart for measured fifty-one feet in width and fifteenlovely flower from its parent bed"--but his all the honors which have been bestowed feet high, and bears one thousand peaches:-"pheelinks" overcame him, he forgo the upon me. They will cheer the remaining It is the lergest in the world. The grapedays of my life and lighten me to the grave. houses-five or six in all -are 600 feet lang. and such grapes! We saw pine-suples weighing ten or fifteen pounds each. The present Cabinet is composed of "men green-house had only figs, another only